Senate Committee for Courts of Justice

and the

House Judicial Panel

Friday, February 17, 2017

House Room C — General Assembly Building

Policy for testimony before the House and Senate Courts of Justice Committees concerning Incumbent Judges and Judicial Candidates

The public is encouraged to attend judicial interviews conducted by the House and Senate Committees for Courts of Justice. However, due to time constraints under which the Committees are required to operate, testimony before the Committees or any subcommittee thereof is limited to persons who have direct knowledge of a judge's or candidate's qualifications, including persons who reside in the judge's or candidate's circuit/district, and persons who previously appeared before the judge as a litigant, defendant, or attorney. Testimony is limited to 5 minutes for each speaker and is restricted to discussion of the judge or candidate presently under consideration by the Committees.
